

FUN FACT!

CRAB HAS MORE THAN 4500 SPECIES IN THE WORLD

Africa is home to some tree-climbing crabs!
On islands like Seychelles and in parts of West Africa, certain mangrove and land crab species can climb trees to escape high tides, find food, or even rest on branches — making them some of the most adventurous crabs on the continent!

Podcast

Uncovering Africa's Blue Economy

www.bluegold.africa